"K. Y. L." PORTLAND.—Your offer is very gladly accepted. We shall be highly pleased to hear from you daily.

INTERESTING.—The proceedings of the General Convention, at Frankfort, with the excellent speech of Col. L. J. Bradford, published elsewhere in our columns, this morning, will be found very interesting.

We had the pleasure yesterday of visiting our old river friend, Mr. Ed. Sager, who is now on the elegant new steamer Magnolia. We were indeed highly gratified with our inspection of this magnificent boat, and we do not hesitate to pronounce her as entitled to rank among the first that ever navigated our Western rivers. Her accommodations for freight and her accommodations for freight and passengers are second to no craft afloat. She is finished in a peer style with all the modern improvements, and combine speed with durability. Her comforts and accommodating Captain, Mr. Frank M. Cayton, will be found over ready to contribute to the comfort of his passengers. The clerks, Misses Fisher and Folker, are such agreeable gentlemen that it is a pleasure to do business with them. We are now lying at Portland and leave this evening for New Orleans. We hope for her the liberal support of passengers and shippers. They will find it to their best to give her their patronage.

NEW SPANISH SYSTEM.—The Board of Aldermen, at the meeting on Thursday last, adopted resolutions directing the Mayor to make bids for the construction of stately piers across Faubourg St. at the north side of Faubourg St. street, at the intersection of Faubourg St. and the intersection of Third street, Pirouette, at the north and west intersections of Broadway and Main street; on the east and west sides of Faubourg St. at the north and east sides of Third street, at the intersection of Faubourg St. and the People's Line wharf across Eighth street, at the south side of Madison street; across Madison street, at the west side of Eighth; across Brown and Grayson, at the west side of Eighth; and across Seventh and Eighth, at the south side of Main street. These improvements are seriously needed, and we trust they may be undertaken with the least possible delay.

RESCUING.—Officer Joseph Sweeny, who was shot by William McCordle on Friday last, continues to improve. He is now considered beyond danger from his wound. McCordle is still at large. The trial will probably be delayed a long time, perhaps than any criminal case heretofore tried in this Department. Besides having to answer numerous specifications of murder and two of rape, the prisoner will be examined upon various acts of robbery under his general charge of guerrillaing. The sessions of the court will be held at the headquarters of Major-General Palmer, on Wauhoo street, between Third and Fourth.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—Miss Emma Waller, the young actress of Lady Teazle, is to appear in the role of Soubrette for Soubrette. She is almost universally admitted to be without a rival in her repertoire. The lovers of the drama may anticipate the rarest intellectual pleasure from her powerful and original presentations. We expect to see the Louisville, during her brief engagement, attended by the largest and most select audience of the dramatic season.

A SINGLE CASE.—The only person that fell into the hands of the police yesterday was Julia Elgin, one of the recipients of Judge Johnstone's clauseness last week. She is charged with having stolen a watch from a citizen of New Albany, who disgraced himself by entering the residence of Julia's late husband, the Officer Elgin, at the river. Officer Elgin, on complaint of the owner of the watch, committed the woman to jail. She will be brought before the bar of Justice this morning.

WOOD'S THEATER.—The engagement of Mr. Elgin, of the theater, will appear to have been a success. The audience was large, and the play was well received.

THEATRE.—The trial of the St. Charles Robbers have just received a fine lot of game, including a monster wild bear, which will be served at the St. Charles, or sold to military.

BOARD OF HEALTH.—There will be a meeting of the Board of Health, at their hall over the City Court, to-morrow evening.

THE JOURNAL OF THE DAY.—Court is County court, but owing to the illness of Judge Moore there will be no trial of the St. Charles and St. Louis.
